"Seller" shall mean the provider of the goods and/or services specified in the Purchase Order.

"Affiliate" means any business entity which controls, is controlled by or is under common control with either party to this contract; for the purposes of this definition a business entity shall be deemed to "control" another business entity if it owns, directly or indirectly, 40% or more of the outstanding voting securities or capital stock of such business entity or any other comparable equity or ownership interest with respect to a business entity other than a corporation.

2 DELIVERY

Goods shall be delivered on the date or during the period specified in the purchase order and Seller shall give reasonable notice of the proposed time and date of actual delivery. The Seller shall give notice of any likely delay in delivery as soon as practicable.

All goods must be delivered at the delivery point specified in the purchase order. Buyer may refuse delivery of goods not so delivered, or may, at its option arrange for delivery to the delivery point at the expense and risk of the Seller.

3 REJECTION

In the case of goods delivered by the Seller not conforming with the contract in every respect or being unfit for the purpose for which they are specified the Buyer shall have the right to reject them. The making of payment shall not prejudice the Buyer's rights under this clause.

4 PRICE

Buyer shall pay to the Seller in the manner laid down in the contract the agreed purchase price which is calculated in accordance with or is recorded in the contract.

5 TERMS OF PAYMENT

Payment terms will be as stated in the Purchase Order.

6. INCOTERMS

The latest edition of Incoterms shall apply to all purchases from overseas. Where there is any conflict between the purchase order or these conditions and Incoterms, the purchase order and these conditions shall prevail.

7. CANCELLATION

The Buyer may cancel the contract at any time subject to a minimum of seven days written notice and Buyer shall pay Seller such a sum as may be equitable in respect of work performed prior to cancellation.

8. SELLER'S DEFAULT OR INSOLVENCY

8.1 If the Seller commits a breach of the contract and fails within ten days of notice by the Buyer to rectify the breach, the Buyer may, without prejudice to any other of his rights terminate the contract by notice in writing.

8.2 If Seller becomes insolvent or (being a Company) makes an arrangement with its creditors or has a liquidator or a receiver appointed or commences to be wound up (other than for the purposes of amalgamation or reconstruction) Buyer may, without prejudice to any other of his rights, terminate the contract forthwith by notice to Seller or any person in whom the contract may have become vested. In such event it shall be lawful for the Buyer to enter the premises where the goods are situated and take possession of the goods and any materials the property in which has passed to or is vested in the Buyer.

9. FORCE MAJEURE

If either party is prevented from performing its obligations under the contract by circumstances beyond its reasonable control, such obligations shall be suspended during any period of delay so caused. If the delay substantially defeats, or appears likely to substantially defeat, the purpose of the contract then either party may forthwith cancel the contract and neither party shall be liable to the other for any loss arising thereby.
